INTRODUCTION

Puddingstone Place is a fully licensed restaurant located in the popular, bustling, tourist town of Callander. The location is often described as the gateway to the Highlands, historically known as the meeting point between the Highlands and the Lowlands, within the heart of The Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park. The hotel is readily accessible to greater Central Scotland and is only approximately one hour's drive from both Glasgow and Edinburgh.

Internally, Puddingstone Place offers two dining areas. The first is the bar dining, with bar service which can accommodate up to 10 covers. There is also additional dining space for up to 20 covers. The restaurant benefits from a good sized commercial kitchen and prep area to service both dining rooms. Outside there is a fantastic al-fresco dining area, which is very popular with customers during the summer months. The owners flat is located at first floor level and can be accessed on street. There is also internal access to the flat from the kitchen via a spiral staircase. The flat has 4 bedrooms, a family bathroom, lounge, office and kitchenette.

The availability of Puddingstone Place presents a truly wonderful opportunity for a hands-on operator to acquire an established lifestyle business in the heart of one of Scotland's most popular tourist destinations.
