Location

The property is prominently situated on Cromwell Street within the established Great Heath area, approximately one mile north of Coventry City Centre.

The unit benefits from excellent road communications, being in close proximity to the A444 (Phoenix Way dual carriageway). Access is available via Red Lane and Phoenix Way, providing direct links to the City Centre, the A46 and A45 trunk roads, and M6 (Junction 3), all within approximately three miles.

Coventry railway station is also within easy reach, offering regular direct services to London and Birmingham, further enhancing the property's connectivity.

Coventry

Coventry is a city in central England. It's known for the medieval Coventry Cathedral, which was left in ruins after a WWII bombing. A 20th-century replacement, with abstract stained glass, stands beside it. The collection at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum includes paintings of local heroine Lady Godiva. A statue of her, naked on horseback, is nearby. The 14th-century St. Mary's Guildhall has a vaulted crypt.

Population: 345,324 (2021)

Metro population: 651,600

Area: 98.54 km²

Coventry is the ninth largest city in England and the twelfth largest in the United Kingdom, with a population of 360,700 as of the mid-year population estimates, making it the second largest Local Authority in the West Midlands.

Coventry is a lively, multicultural city with a rich history embracing the old and new. Nowhere is this more evident than in the Cathedral Quarter where the modern architecture and ancient ruins of the two cathedrals dominate cobbled streets with bustling cafes, pubs and restaurants.
