Location

Electric Wharf is a thriving creative canal-side scheme located to the immediate north of Coventry City Centre. The Boiler House is located at the heart of the scheme which itself is at the centre of continuing rejuvenation and regeneration in this established commercial hub. From junction 9 of the Coventry City Centre ring road the first right turn into Light Lane leads onto Sandy Lane via St Nicholas Street and the scheme is located on the right hand side before the turning into Widdrington Road. Electric Wharf is within walking distance of the city centre via the new feature footbridge over the canal.

Coventry

Coventry is a city in central England. It's known for the medieval Coventry Cathedral, which was left in ruins after a WWII bombing. A 20th-century replacement, with abstract stained glass, stands beside it. The collection at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum includes paintings of local heroine Lady Godiva. A statue of her, naked on horseback, is nearby. The 14th-century St. Mary's Guildhall has a vaulted crypt.

Population: 345,324 (2021)

Metro population: 651,600

Area: 98.54 km²

Coventry is the ninth largest city in England and the twelfth largest in the United Kingdom, with a population of 360,700 as of the mid-year population estimates, making it the second largest Local Authority in the West Midlands.

Coventry is a lively, multicultural city with a rich history embracing the old and new. Nowhere is this more evident than in the Cathedral Quarter where the modern architecture and ancient ruins of the two cathedrals dominate cobbled streets with bustling cafes, pubs and restaurants.
