Description

The subjects comprise converted offices within the Category B listed, detached former Church premises known as Carden-Melville Church. The building is of traditional granite and slate construction with an impressive spire being the main feature.

The lower ground floor, with an entrance on Albert Street, is self-contained. It is predominantly open plan with two meeting rooms and benefits from ample natural light from stunning feature windows. There is also a demised tea prep area. There are smaller suites available at the rear of the lower ground and ground floor which also benefit from a self-contained entrance.

The remaining accommodation benefits from 5 car parking spaces to the rear of the building, which are accessed via Albert Lane.
